| BRIEF SUMMARY | | | |
| Hampshire and Isle of Wight Integrated Care Board is consulting on proposals for changes to services provided by Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT). The Integrated Care Board are now undertaking a public consultation on the proposed options. The consultation began on 11 December 2023 and will run for 14 weeks until midnight 17 March 2024. A Joint Health Overview and Scrutiny Committee, comprising elected members from Hampshire County Council and Southampton City Council, has been formed to provide independent scrutiny to the Hampshire Together – Modernising our Hospitals and Health Services Programme. | | | |
| RECOMMENDATIONS: | | | |
| | (i) | That the Panel discuss the proposals for changes to services provided by Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust and consider responding to the consultation being led by the Integrated Care Board. | |
| REASONS FOR REPORT RECOMMENDATIONS | | | |
| 1. | To enable the Panel to scrutinise the options proposed. | | |
| ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS CONSIDERED AND REJECTED | | | |
| 2. | To not discuss the options being considered to change services provided by Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT). This was rejected because the proposals could impact health services provided to Southampton residents. | | |
| DETAIL (Including consultation carried out) | | | |
| 3. | Attached as Appendix 1 is an introduction to the Modernising our Hospitals and Health Services Programme. Also attached, as Appendices 2 and 3, are | | |

| 4. | The HOSP, at a meeting in October 2020, determined that the changes being proposed within the Hampshire Together - Modernising our Hospitals and Health Services programme, represented a substantial change/variation in service. Hampshire County Council's Health Overview and Scrutiny Committee also reached the same decision. |
| 5. | A joint committee, comprising 8 Members, with 7 being appointed by Hampshire County Council and 1 being appointed by Southampton City Council, was subsequently appointed in December 2020 for the purposes of providing independent scrutiny to the Hampshire Together – Modernising our Hospitals and Health Services Programme. The Committee has met on 5 occasions and is the lead committee scrutinising the proposals and the consultation programme. |
| 6. | The Integrated Care Board are now undertaking a public consultation on the proposed options. The consultation began on 11 December 2023 and will run for 14 weeks until midnight 17 March 2024. |
| 7. | Given the potential impact of the proposed options on health services in Southampton, the Chair has requested that the Panel are consulted on the options being considered. The Panel are therefore asked to discuss the proposals, outlined within the appendices, with the invited representatives and to consider providing feedback to the ongoing consultation. |
